CRACK TIP 28/10/22

As part of add-on programme Department of Computer Science conducted a session "CRACK TIP" on 28/10/22 at 9.30 am in College Seminarhall. Ms. Swapna O (Assistant Professor, Department of Computer Science) welcomed the gathering. Ms. Nijana V (Assistant professor, Department of Computer Science) handled the session. The most important step to landing a job is being prepared for interviews. By doing some preparation students will feel more in control, and will appear confident, cool, calm during the interviews. Many students are nervous when interviewing for a position. Devote a few moments at the start to put the applicant at ease with some small talk. Questions such as "Tell me about yourself" or "What year are you and what are your aspirations after graduation" are good ways to break the ice. Some students will arrive dressed professionally while others will wear more casual clothing. Don't let this deter you from hiring the candidate that will be the best fit. Give students the benefit of the doubt when it comes to their attire. The Session ended with the vote of thanks by Ms. Kavitha. T (Assistant professor, Department of Computer Science).

TALENT HUB

On September 3, 2024, the Department of Computer Science organized a dynamic student-led lecture at 1:30 PM in the Talent Hub, featuring first-year BCA students as presenters. The session commenced with a warm welcome from Athira Krishnan, who introduced the audience to the speakers and their respective topics. This initiative provided an excellent platform for students to share their insights on contemporary issues in the field of computer science.

The presentations highlighted a variety of cutting-edge subjects, showcasing the students' knowledge and enthusiasm. Athul Vijayan spoke on Edge Computing, elucidating its pivotal role in data processing and real-time applications. Kavya Mukundan's presentation on Cyber Security underscored the importance of safeguarding digital assets, while Athira Krishna explored the transformative potential of Artificial Intelligence. Princy discussed Data Science and its applications, and Mohammed Nasif concluded with an overview of Programming Languages, emphasizing their foundational significance in software development. Each presentation not only demonstrated technical proficiency but also reflected the students' dedication to honing their public speaking skills.

The session was further enriched by the presence of Mr. Deepesh V P and Ms. Swapna O, Assistant Professors in the Department of Computer Science, who applauded the students for their hard work and commitment. Their recognition highlighted the importance of student initiatives in developing both technical knowledge and essential communication skills, fostering a culture of innovation within the department.

To conclude the event, Muhammed Shabin, a second-year BCA student, delivered a heartfelt vote of thanks, expressing appreciation for the presenters, faculty, and attendees. This lecture not only served as a platform for first-year students to enhance their public speaking and presentation skills but also inspired a collaborative learning environment, encouraging all participants to engage with the rapidly evolving world of technology.
